

22.
Aug 2025

Montafon theatre hike

🕒 Freitag 9:45 o'clock

The interactive play “On the Run” takes you on a though-provoking journey to the past. On the hike from Gargellen towards the Sarotlajoch, guided by Friedrich Juen, you’ll sense the fate of those people who had to experience the horrors of the Second World War first hand at different performance venues between Austria and Switzerland with the “teatro caprile”. The play is performed at the Hotel Madrisa, in alpine chalets and in open terrain. The play is based on testimonies, historical documents and literary texts from Franz Werfel, Jura Soyfer and other writers who had to flee Nazi Germany. The emotional density and the analysis of the historical subject matter in the heart of the Rätikon mountains generates vivid images that tug on the minds of all participants.

Description

The interactive play “On the Run” takes you on a though-provoking journey to the past. On the hike from Gargellen towards the Sarotlajoch, guided by Friedrich Juen, you’ll sense the fate of those people who had to experience the horrors of the Second World War first hand at different performance venues between Austria and Switzerland with the “teatro caprile”. The play is performed at the Hotel Madrisa, in alpine chalets and in open terrain. The play is based on testimonies, historical documents and literary texts from Franz Werfel, Jura Soyfer and other writers who had to flee Nazi Germany. The emotional density and the analysis of the historical subject matter in the heart of the Rätikon mountains generates vivid images that tug on the minds of all participants.

Detailed description

The interactive play “On the Run” takes you on a though-provoking journey to the past. On the hike from Gargellen towards the Sarotlajoch, guided by Friedrich Juen, you’ll sense the fate of those people who had to experience the horrors of the Second World War first hand at different performance venues between Austria and Switzerland with the “teatro caprile”. The play is performed at the Hotel Madrisa, in alpine chalets and in open terrain. The play is based on testimonies, historical documents and literary texts from Franz Werfel, Jura Soyfer and other writers who had to flee Nazi Germany. The emotional density and the analysis of the historical subject matter in the heart of the Rätikon mountains generates vivid images that tug on the minds of all participants.

faq_customer_requirements

- Sonnen- und Regenschutz
- Festes Schuhwerk,
- eventuell Wanderstöcke
- Rucksack mit einer kleinen Verpflegung - Wasser!

faq_other_info

Die Mitnahme von Hunden ist leider nicht gestattet

Veranstaltungsort

Hotel Madrisa
6787 Gargellen

Veranstalter

Montafon Tourismus

Weitere Termine

Datum

22.08.2025

23.08.2025

24.08.2025

29.08.2025

31.08.2025

Uhrzeit

09:45 o'clock

09:45 o'clock

09:45 o'clock

09:45 o'clock

09:45 o'clock

