Detailed description

At the Löwen Hotel Montafon, you're invited to enjoy a truly exceptional culinary experience. The heart of our offering is the exclusive à la carte restaurant Brasserie Leonis - a place where locals, visitors, and gourmets from around the world come together to indulge all the senses.

Head Chef Janine Wieland masterfully blends French finesse with Alpine authenticity. Her cuisine focuses on high-quality regional and seasonal ingredients, interpreted in a modern way - a truly unique approach in the Montafon. The New French meets genuine Alpine culinary tradition.

Our sommelier Fabienne Hammer provides the perfect wine pairing for each dish, offering a superb selection of Austrian and international wines to complement your dining experience.
