

The Silver Games World on the Kristberg in Silbertal

PUBLIC PLAYGROUND

Experience the fascinating history of mining in a playful way

At the end of the Silberpfad (Silver Trail) at the miners' chapel of St. Agatha and below the Panoramagasthof Kristberg, the Silver Games World welcomes children with its many attractions. Various things to play on make mining an experience for all the senses here and let children immerse themselves in the working world of the mines.

Description

Experience the fascinating history of mining in a playful way

Detailed description

At the end of the Silberpfad (Silver Trail) at the miners' chapel of St. Agatha and below the Panoramagasthof Kristberg, the Silver Games World welcomes children with its many attractions. Various things to play on make mining an experience for all the senses here and let children immerse themselves in the working world of the mines.

Opening hours

Open at the same time as Montafoner Kristbergbahn (may to november)