Important note: Our BergePLUS tours take place from 3 registered persons. The regular registration deadline is always the day before at 19:00. However, if the minimum number of 3 people has not been reached by 15:00 on the same day, the tour in question will be automatically cancelled and registration will no longer be possible. In this case, guests who have already booked will of course be informed by us. An exception to this rule is the children's programme - this takes place with one or more children.
